

Make your own Kiwi Baby Bunting!

A fun activity for brothers and sisters in waiting as you prepare to welcome a new baby into the home!

You will need:

- The bunting template
- A pair of scissors
(always ensure only grownups use scissors)
- Sticky tape or some wooden pegs
- Some string or a length of ribbon

How to make it:

- 1 Print enough bunting for your desired length
- 2 Cut along the lines
- 3 Using sticky tape or pegs, attach the bunting to the string
- 4 Now it's time to pick the perfect spot to hang the bunting so your new brother or sister can see it!
